**When a guest registration is available for the full conference attendee, guests cannot register independently; the attendee must register the guest. A guest is a spouse/significant other, friend, or adult child who is not attending for business or educational purposes. A co-worker or an associate within the industry may not use the guest registration. Guest registration includes attendance at all exhibit experiences, opening reception and other open event receptions. Guest registration is limited to two per conference registrant, multiple youth tickets may be purchased when offered.

***An AAJ Legal Administrator Affiliate is an individual who is qualified through education, training and/or experience to perform law firm administrative functions, including chief operating officers, chief strategy officers, and in-house marketing or business development professionals, and is employed by an attorney who for the most part based on caseload and time, works on behalf of the plaintiff in civil litigation or works on behalf of the defendant in criminal litigation. The administrative work performed must be in accordance with AAJ's mission and attested to by an AAJ Regular, Sustaining, Life, or President's Club Member by means of sponsorship. If you qualify for any of the above categories, please email convention@justice.org to provide your information to be registered.

I have read and agree to all terms and conditions which are subject to the convention registration. If for unforeseen reasons this program is cancelled or changed, the American Association for Justice®, formerly the Association of Trial Lawyers of America (ATLA®), cannot be held financially responsible for airline tickets or other associated fees, and room rates cannot be guaranteed. AAJ reserves the right to, in its sole discretion, refuse entrance to the event and/or remove any individual whose behavior is disruptive and/or is not consistent with the character and purpose of the show. All AAJ badges are the property of AAJ and must be returned to AAJ upon request.

By registering and attending this AAJ Convention, you agree that you and your guest name, attendee data, image, and any voice recording may be used at any time, without further notification, for marketing, educational, or other purposes in keeping with AAJ's mission, in formats including but not limited to: printed materials, mobile app, videos, podcasts, websites, voluntary lead retrieval or social media. In addition, you agree that AAJ may share your name, firm, city and state with other attendees, sponsors, or exhibitors. By registering for this event you grant consent for the exchange of your provided contact details between AAJ and the designated hotel(s), exclusively for event-related purposes. The shared information, encompassing personally identifiable details such as registration, email addresses, and check-in/out information, will be treated confidentially. AAJ may share your name with the hotel in a registration list to audit rooms for the AAJ block and flag for inclusion in the group block for on-site room deliveries.

CANCELLATION POLICY: All cancellations must be submitted in writing to AAJ at conventioncancellation@justice.org. Cancellations received by May 9, 2025, will be subject to a 10% cancellation fee. Cancellations received between May 10 and June 13, 2025, will be subject to a 50% cancellation fee. After June 13, 2025, requests for refunds will not be honored or transferable to future conventions. We will only substitute your registration with another member from your firm.

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT: As an attendee at this Convention, I understand that I will have access to confidential, privileged, or proprietary information, including information concerning AAJ's legislative and/or regulatory advocacy. I agree not to disclose or disseminate such information without the written permission of AAJ, except to persons I know to be plaintiff attorney members of AAJ or members of an AAJ-affiliated trial lawyer organization. Additionally, I agree that I will not record, by audio, visual, or other means, any portion of any meeting or event during the Convention without the permission of AAJ.

I further understand that if I knowingly and purposely violate this Agreement, my membership status in the Association will be reviewed and may be revoked; and I may be subjected to disciplinary charges, including, but not limited to, charges brought before state licensing boards. Upon request, I will provide my state bar identification number(s); and, if a Law Student Member, I will, upon request, identify the name of my law school or, if a Paralegal Affiliate Member or if registered as a Legal Administrator, will, upon request, identify the name of my AAJ sponsoring attorney.

The American Association for Justice reserves the right to, in its sole discretion, refuse entrance to the event and/or remove any individual from the event whose behavior is disruptive and/or is not consistent with the character and purpose of the show. All American Association for Justice badges are the property of the American Association for Justice and must be returned to the American Association for Justice upon request.

Finally, by agreeing to the terms of this Agreement, I am certifying that if I am registering as an AAJ Regular Member, I am licensed to practice law, I am actively engaged in the practice of law and that, for the most part, based on caseload and time, I represent the plaintiff in civil litigation or represent the defendant in criminal litigation.

EVENT UNLAWFUL DISCRIMINATION, ANTI-HARASSMENT & SAFETY POLICY

AAJ is committed to providing a safe, productive, and welcoming environment for all participants and AAJ staff. All participants, including, but not limited to, attendees, speakers, volunteers, exhibitors, sponsors, AAJ staff, and service providers, are expected to comply with this Policy. It applies to all AAJ events, including those sponsored by companies and firms held in conjunction with AAJ events, in public or private facilities.

AAJ does not tolerate any form of discrimination or harassment, including but not limited to sexual harassment. In response to any incident of unacceptable behavior, AAJ reserves the right to take any action deemed necessary and appropriate, including immediate removal from the meeting without refund and the right to prohibit attendance at any future event.

UNACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOR

- Harassment, intimidation, or discrimination
- Physical or verbal abuse
- Inappropriate verbal comments related to gender, age, pregnancy, marital status, sexual orientation, disability, personal appearance, race, religion, or national origin
- Inappropriate use of nudity and/or sexual images in public spaces or in presentations
- Harassing, threatening, or stalking
- Unwanted touching, unwanted remarks of a sexual nature, unwelcome comments about someone's body or personal appearance, and unwelcome attention
